

Dear Parents:

Oakwood Christian School needs your help. As you know our tuition does not cover the cost to educate your child. Oakwood Bible Church supplies the balance as to what tuition doesn't. One of the ways we keep our budget balanced is thru fundraising. We have a large upcoming event on November 18th and could use your help.

4th Annual OCS Talent Show will be held on November 18th at 7pm. Before show: Make Your Own Sundae (sponsored by Stewarts), OCS Photo Fair viewing, Christmas Family photos, from 6-7pm. Also on that night we will hold a Silent Auction in our halls.

We are asking those who are able to recruit an item for our Silent Auction. Attached is a letter that you may use for such purpose. All donations are tax deductible and a receipt will be issued.

Working together, we are confident that OCS will continue to grow strong in a weak economic climate. We do appreciate all our volunteers and generous supporters that enable us to impact your child in a positive way. Thank you for your consideration.
